

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

The submission of a proposal implies a commitment to attend the virtual meeting and provide the presentation if it is accepted. All attendees, presenters, and guests are required to register for the meeting. Proposals will be accepted or rejected on the basis of peer review.

The NEPA Priority Deadline for Posters, Symposiums, and Papers is August 1, 2022. NEPA will continue to review and accept posters until September 1, 2022

NEPA invites the submission of papers and posters with clear and detailed articulation of research questions, procedures, data analyses, and implications of the results. Theoretical and literature review submissions will be considered as papers provided that they present new ideas, models, or frameworks for future research. Papers and posters may be qualitative in concept and methodology provided that a sufficient description of data sources/evidence, evaluation procedures, and substantiated conclusions is provided.

NEPA also seeks the submission of symposia that include authors from different institutions presenting substantive issues from different perspectives.

In order to be reviewed paper and poster submissions must include the following content:

- Title and list of authors and affiliations.
- Short abstract of 50 to 100 words summarizing the research concept, the methods, and the main findings.
- Long abstract of 1000 to 1500 words with separate sections that clearly state the:
 - * Research problem and hypotheses.
 - * Methodology.
 - * Results or findings with statistical tests (e.g., means and standard deviations) embedded within explanations, where appropriate.
 - * implications of the results within the context of the stated problem and hypotheses.

A symposium submission should include the following content:

- Title and list of authors and affiliations.
- Short abstract of up to 250 words summarizing the themes and goals of the session and the audience for which the symposium is intended.
- Long abstract of 1000 to 1500 words summarizing each presenter's contribution to the submission and expertise to participate in the symposium.
- All proposals must be submitted using the NEPA submission portal at nepsychological.org.
